

NAVIGATING CULTURES IN THE GLOBAL WORKPLACE

VIRTUAL WORKSHOP SERIES

Engage in intercultural dialogue with colleagues from Germany, South Africa, and the U.S.

In January/February 2025, Northwestern University's Office of International Relations will host an interactive 5-week virtual workshop series for staff members from University of Hamburg, Stellenbosch University, and Northwestern University.

In our global university settings, it's more important than ever that staff have the necessary awareness, knowledge and skills to effectively work in multi-cultural environments.

Five participants from each university will participate in interactive small group sessions which combine live presentations, discussions, and case studies. Participation in the workshop is free.

The goal of the workshop series is for participants to

- increase their self- and other-awareness
- apply learnings from the Cultural Orientations Indicator® (COI) and the Cultural Navigator® to work situations
- learn frameworks for understanding culture and develop strategies for effectively working in culturally diverse settings

Workshop Dates:

- Thursdays, Jan. 30 – Feb. 27, 2025
- 9:00–11:00 am CST | 4:00–6:00 pm CET
