

Dear Applicant,

Please find attached the Tomorrow Trust Application form for the study year 2020.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

All applicants must comply with the following in order to be accepted by the Tomorrow Trust as a beneficiary:

- Be between 18 – 26 years of age.
- Send in a completed application form together with a copy of ALL requested documentation. Applications with missing documentation will not be considered.
- Must provide proof of registration and acceptance at University before being accepted as a beneficiary of the Tomorrow Trust.
- Must provide an updated fee statement from the University with no outstanding fees (if applicable). The Tomorrow Trust will not back pay any costs that are outstanding.

All students must apply for admission to the academic institution of their choice and pay the application fee themselves, as this is NOT the responsibility of the Tomorrow Trust. You will not be refunded for the application fee. Furthermore, the Tomorrow Trust does not fund:

- Distance learning/part-time students E.g. UNISA.
- Students at FET/TVET Colleges
- Short courses
- Courses which are not accredited by the relevant professional bodies E.g. SAQA

You may submit your application form to the Tomorrow Trust offices by hand, fax or email ONLY. You must also provide us with CLEAR photographs and ID copies (certified by a Commissioner of Oath). Once we have received your application form you will receive an email from us confirming receipt of your application. If you do not receive an email confirmation from us within 5 working days of submitting your application, please call the Tomorrow Trust offices to confirm receipt on 011 447 7707.
