

CALL FOR PHD AND MASTERS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

PARTNERING FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONAL TRAINING IN AFRICAN UNIVERSITIES (P4HPT)

INTRODUCTION/BACKGROUND

The Partnering for Health Professionals Training in African Universities (P4HPT) is an EU-funded project under the Intra-ACP Academic Mobility Scheme which aims at building capacity of health professionals with a view to expand the health workforce size in the target countries and subsequently improve well-being of communities. The partnership is composed of University of Ghana (Ghana), Makerere University (Uganda), Uganda Martyrs University (Uganda), Stellenbosch University (South Africa), University of Nairobi (Kenya), Moi University (Kenya), Eduardo Mondlane University (Mozambique), University of Burundi (Burundi), University of Juba (South Sudan), National University of Lesotho (Lesotho), and Universite Catholique De Bukavu (Democratic Republic of Congo). The programme awards scholarships to postgraduate students and staff from various African countries to study at one of the partner institutions. This call is for Masters and Doctoral (PhD) applications.

SCHOLARSHIP PACKAGE

The following are covered by the scholarship;

1. One Round trip flight ticket and visa costs
2. A monthly subsistence allowance for the mobility period (see below)
 - Masters: €600 per month
